MASTER DRILLING GROUP LIMITED

Reviewed March 2018

The role of the Remuneration committee ("Committee") will be to work on behalf of the Board of Directors ("the Board") and be responsible for its recommendations within these terms of reference.

The Board of directors of Master Drilling Group Limited ("Master Drilling" or the "Company") has delegated the following responsibilities to the Committee: -

1. REMUNERATION

- 1.1 The Committee shall assist the Board with ensuring that Master Drilling and its subsidiaries ("the Group") remunerates fairly, responsibly and transparently so as to promote the achievement of strategic objectives and positive outcomes in the short, medium and long- term.
- 1.2 The Committee shall assist the board with formulating a remuneration policy that in accordance with the King IV Report on Corporate Governance for South Africa 2016 ("King IV"):
  - a) Articulates and gives effect to the board's direction on fair, responsible and transparent remuneration;
  - b) Is designed to:
    - i. Attract, motivate, reward and retain human capital;
    - ii. Promote the achievement of strategic objectives within the organization's risk appetite;
    - iii. Promote positive outcomes; and
    - iv. To promote an ethical culture and responsible corporate citizenship;
  - c) Addresses organizational-wide remuneration and includes provision for the following specifically:
    - i. Arrangements towards ensuring that the remuneration of executive management is fair and responsible in the context of overall employee remuneration in the organization;
    - ii. The use of performance measures that support positive outcomes across the economic, social and environmental context in which the organization operates; and/or all the resources that the organization uses or affects;
    - iii. The voting by shareholders on the remuneration policy, implementation report, and the measures to be taken should either the policy, the report or both be voted against by 25% or more of the votes exercised;
    - iv. All elements of remuneration that are offered in the organization and the mix of these should be set out in the remuneration policy.
- 1.3 The Committee will co-ordinate its activities with the chairperson of the Board and the chief executive of the Company as well as consult with them in formulating the remuneration policy and when determining specific remuneration packages.
- 1.4 The Committee shall oversee that the implementation and execution of the remuneration policy achieves the objectives of the remuneration policy.
- 1.5 The Committee shall determine specific remuneration packages for executive directors of the Company including but not limited to basic salary, benefits in kind, any annual bonuses, performance base incentives, share incentives, pension and other benefits;
- 1.6 The Committee will aim to position senior executive pay levels relative to local and international industry benchmarks such that they are sufficient to attract, retain and motivate executives of the quality required by the Board. In determining the specific remuneration packages for executive directors and senior managers, the Committee will have due regard to the remuneration policy and local and international industry benchmarks.
- 1.7 The Committee shall determine any criteria necessary to measure the performance of executive directors and senior management in discharging their functions and responsibilities.
- 1.8 The Committee will aim to provide the executive directors and senior management every encouragement to enhance the Company's performance and to ensure that they are fairly but responsibly rewarded for their individual contributions and performance.

- 1.9 The Committee will review (at least annually) the terms and conditions of remuneration packages for executive directors and senior management.
- 1.10 The Committee will determine any grants to executive directors and other senior employees made pursuant to any share incentive scheme adopted by the Company.
- 1.11 The Chief Executive Officer will keep the Committee informed of relevant information in respect of other group executives and senior managers whose remuneration packages are not determined by the Committee.
- 1.12 The Company secretary will keep the Committee informed of all share transactions and shareholdings of all directors of the Company.
- 1.13 The Committee will be responsible for making recommendations to the Board on the fee structure and all fees payable by the Company to non-executive directors for membership of both the Board and any board committee as well as fees to the chairperson of the Board and chairperson of the board committees including fees for additional extraordinary work performed. No member of the Committee shall participate in the decision making of the Board in respect of his/her own remuneration.
- 1.14 In order to achieve and maintain fair, responsible and acceptable levels of remuneration, the Committee should, inter alia, give consideration to the following:
  - a) the fees payable to non-executive directors of comparable listed companies, established, if considered necessary by the Committee, by reference to independent surveys and consultants;
  - b) the general level of hourly/daily rates of fees earned by directors in their professional capacities;
  - c) the hours spent in travel and preparation for meetings, as well as actual attendances;
  - d) a fair and reasonable allowance for indirect costs pertinent to the role of directors;
- 1.15 To the extent required by the Company's Memorandum of Incorporation and any relevant legislation and/or regulations, the Board shall be responsible for making recommendations on such fees to the members of the Company in annual general meeting.
- 1.16 The Committee shall review the fees payable to non-executive directors on a regular basis and at least annually.
- 1.17 The Committee shall determine the frequency of payment of the fees.
- 1.18 The Committee shall develop performance criteria for non-executive directors and board committees.
- 1.19 The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board for approval the Company secretary remuneration.

2. REPORTING

- 2.1 The chairperson of the Committee shall report to the Board on a regular basis on matters dealt with by the Committee.
- 2.2 The Committee shall ensure that its annual report and the annual remuneration report substantially comply with the recommended practices set out in Principle 14 of King IV.
- 2.3 The Committee will liaise with the Board in relation to the preparation of the annual remuneration report to stakeholders as required and will ensure that the remuneration policy and implementation report is put to a non-binding advisory vote at annual general meetings of shareholders.
