Master Drilling Group Limited (“the Company”)

Social, Ethics and Sustainability
Committee Charter 2018

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Social, Ethics and Sustainability Committee (the “Committee”) is constituted as a committee of the Board (the “Board of Directors”) of the Master Drilling Group Limited and its subsidiaries in terms of section 72(4) of the Companies Act no. 71 of 2008 (the "Companies Act") read with regulation 43 of the Companies Regulations, 2011 and in accordance with the King IV Report on Corporate Governance for South Africa 2016 (“King IV”).
- 1.2 The duties and responsibilities of the members of the Committee as set out in this document are in addition to those duties and responsibilities that they have as members of the Board. The deliberations of the Committee do not reduce the individual and collective responsibilities of Board members in regard to their fiduciary duties and responsibilities, and they must continue to exercise due care and judgment in accordance with their legal obligations.
- 1.3 These terms of reference are subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the Company's Memorandum of Incorporation (“MOI”), King IV and any other applicable law or regulatory provision.

2. Purpose of the terms of reference

- 2.1 The purpose of these terms of reference is to set out the Committee's role and responsibilities as well as the requirements for its composition and meeting procedures.

3. Composition of the Committee

- 3.1 The Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Master Drilling Group Limited.
- 3.2 The committee shall comprise:
  - 3.2.1 a minimum of three Board members, executive and non-executive members, of which the majority shall be non-executive Board members; and

- 3.2.2 at least one Board member who has not been involved in the day-to-day management of the Company's business, and
- 3.2.3 must not have been so involved within the previous three financial years.
- 3.3 The Chairperson of the committee who shall be an independent non-executive director shall be appointed by the Board.
- 3.4 The members of the Committee should collectively have sufficient qualifications and experience to fulfill their duties, in particular the knowledge of the industry, the markets in which the Company operates, business ethics and the understanding of the community and/or material stakeholders of the business.
- 3.5 The Committee members keep up-to-date with developments affecting the required skill-set and the Board may from time to time review the composition so as to meet the requirements of the Act and regulations.
- 3.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Board shall have the power at any time to remove any members from the committee and to fill any vacancies so created by such removal.
- 3.7 The Group Company Secretary shall be the secretary of the Committee.

4. Role

- 4.1 The Committee has an independent role with accountability to the Board and is required to report annually to shareholders through its Chairperson.
- 4.2 The Committee shall not assume the functions of management, which remain the responsibility of the executive directors, officers and other members of senior management.
- 4.3 The overall role of the Committee is to ensure that the Company complies with s72 (4) to (10) read with regulation 43 of the Companies Act 2008 and to assist the Board with the oversight of social, environmental, compliance, stakeholder and ethical matters relating to the Company as required under King IV.

5. Responsibilities

5.1 The Committee is constituted as the custodian of the Companies performance and standing as a corporate citizen and its role and responsibility shall be to:

- 5.1.1 Oversee the development of policies, guidelines, standards and practices for matters relating to safety, health, sustainable development, environment, employment, stakeholder and customer relations, social and ethics conduct of the Company.
- 5.1.2 Review and approve the Business Code of Conduct and Ethics, the Compliance policy, the Environmental policy and the Anti-corruption and Bribery policy on an annual basis. These policies shall encompass the Company's interaction with both internal and external stakeholders and the broader society and shall also address the key ethical risks of the Company.
- 5.1.3 Ensure that the codes of conduct and ethics policies provide for arrangements that familiarise employees and other stakeholders with the Company's ethical standards.
- 5.1.4 The Committee shall exercise oversight of the management of ethics.
- 5.1.5 The Committee shall oversee the process for setting the direction and approach taken by the Company with regards to being a responsible corporate citizen.
- 5.1.6 The Committee shall ensure that the Company's responsible citizenship efforts include compliance with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (including the Bill of Rights), the law, leading standards, and adherence to its own codes of conduct and policies.
- 5.1.7 The Committee shall oversee and monitor, on an ongoing basis, how the consequences of the Company's activities and outputs affect its status as a responsible corporate citizen.
- 5.1.8 The Committee shall assist the Board with the oversight of the governance of compliance by the Group in accordance with King IV, applicable laws and
